

KILLS MOTHER IN DRUNKEN RAGE

Brooklyn Law Clerk Knocks Down and Kicks Aged Woman Who Was Pleading with Him to Return Home.

HAD BEEN DRINKING FOR SEVERAL DAYS.

Fights Neighbors When They Interfere and Has to Be Subdued by Force—Refuses to Make Any Statement.

In a fit of drunken rage Frederick D. Putnam, a clerk in a Brooklyn law office, knocked his aged mother down in front of their home, at No. 948 Herkimer street, and then kicked her to death. He is held in the Atlantic avenue station-house on a charge of murder.

Putnam has been drinking heavily for several days, it is said, and was intoxicated when he went home last night. He remained in bed but a few minutes and then started downstairs, declaring he was going after more liquor.

The old woman coaxed him back to his room, but she could not keep him there. Once again he went down stairs, and despite her protests opened the door and went out in his night clothes. She, too, wore nothing but a thin nightgown, but she followed him into the street.

Unable to break away from her grasp, the man at last turned and dealt his mother a vicious blow in the face. A dozen persons, who had been attracted to their windows by the quarrel, saw the old woman fall to the pavement as limp as if she had been shot.

Then, thoroughly infuriated, Putnam jumped on his mother with his feet, kicking her in the face and stomach. For a few seconds the woman screamed and then her groans became less and less distinct until she lost consciousness entirely.

Mrs. Hooper, who lives at No. 945 Herkimer street, was the first to reach the street. She seized Putnam by the arm and tried to pull him away from the prostrate body of his mother, but she received a stinging blow in the face for her pains. She went reeling back and would have fallen but for others who had by this time run from their houses.

Half a dozen men seized Putnam, who fought and struggled until he was taken to the police station and put behind barred doors.

An ambulance was called but Dr. Kuhn found that Mrs. Putnam was dead. Her body was a mass of bruises. Putnam was sobered by the tragedy. He sat stolidly in his cell and refused to answer questions put to him by the police.

He is thirty-seven years old and a colored man. He has been in his position in the law office for a number of years and was considered a competent clerk.

KILLED BY FALL ON STEAMER

James McDonald, twenty-seven years old, of No. 789 Washington street, while at work on pier No. 48, at the foot of West Eleventh street, to-day was killed by falling on the steamship Victoria.

DOWIE CONVERT LANDS IN A CELL

When Arrested Had on an Overcoat Belonging to the Husband of Woman Who Had Befriended Him—Admits Theft.

Edward C. Burdick was before Magistrate Barlow in the Jefferson Market Police Court to-day and pleaded guilty of the larceny of an overcoat from the home of Mrs. Louis Bentz, of No. 129 Eighth avenue. He was held in $500 bail for trial in the Court of Special Sessions.

A few days ago Mrs. Bentz, who is a member of the Volunteers of America, took Burdick to her house, as he said he was in destitute circumstances. A short time afterward he disappeared, as did Mr. Bentz's overcoat.

Sunday afternoon Mrs. Bentz saw Burdick in Madison Square Garden, wearing her husband's coat. He claimed to have been converted during the Dowie meetings and said that he had been employed in the kitchen at the Garden for several days. The police were notified and Detective Kahn arrested Burdick while he was conversing with Lela Nelder, of Zion City. When searched at the station a pocketbook belonging to Mrs. Nelder was found on him, along with a ticket to Zion City, some small articles of jewelry and other small things which had been stolen. It is alleged, from the Restoration Host.

The overcoat was returned to Bentz and the police are holding the other articles until their owners can be found.

MRS. DOWIE ILL IN LONDON.

LIVERPOOL, Nov. 2.—Mrs. Dowie, wife of John Alexander Dowie, the Zionist leader, their son, Gladstone Dowie, a lady's maid and a colored valet arrived here to-day from Boston on the steamer Samonia and were besieged by reporters. Mrs. Dowie emphatically denied that she had Dowie's treasure chest with her, or that she intended to start a mission in London, and confirmed the reports that she will ultimately proceed to Australia, where her husband will join her and conduct a great mission. Gladstone Dowie was very bitter in his denunciation of the American newspapers.

WOMAN NOW CLAIMS ARMSTRONG ESTATE

Mrs. Albertina C. Kutze Enters the Contest and Further Complicates Case Where a Will Was Forged.

(Special to The Evening World.)

WHITE PLAINS, Nov. 2.—In addition to William C. Armstrong, who claims to be an adopted son, and a score of nephews and nieces, who are fighting for the $200,000 estate left by the late Mrs. Alacia Armstrong, of Mount Vernon, and a descendant of Lord Armstrong, of London, another claimant appeared to-day.

She is Mrs. Albertina C. Kutze, of Orange, N. J., who says she is the daughter of the late Mrs. Armstrong, and the only rightful heir.

On account of the new developments Surrogate Slikman has for the third time adjourned the hearing for the issuance of letters of administration to enable Mrs. Kutze to file the necessary affidavits and to produce evidence to substantiate her relationship.

According to her counsel are Mrs. Kutze contends that her father, the late Francis Bradley, was the first husband of Mrs. Armstrong. She has two step-sisters, Georgiana and Eva Bradley, of Cliffside, N. J., who are known as barmaids, because they tend bar in a little tavern here.

It was these girls who filed in the Surrogate's Court at White Plains what purported to be a will made by Mrs. Armstrong. The will bequeathed all the property to the two Bradley girls, but Surrogate Slikman threw it out of court because it was proven to be a forgery.

Judge Syme, who represents William C. Armstrong, will put up a bitter fight against Mrs. Kutze's claim to relationship.

STOLEN PIN FOUND ON HIM.

Young Man Accused of Robbing Contractor on a Street Car.

Harry Harris, twenty-two years old, of No. 319 East Sixtieth street, was arraigned before Magistrate Zeller in Harlem Court to-day, charged with the theft of a diamond pin, valued at $500, from T. Barry, a contractor, living at No. 1149 Boston road. Barry was standing on the rear platform of a north-bound Lexington avenue car about 12 o'clock last night when he felt a tug at his necktie, and feeling for his pin discovered it was gone. Harris had been standing next him and Barry accused him of taking the pin. Harris jumped from the car, but was arrested. The pin was found in his hand.

ALFRED J. CAMMEYER, Sixth Ave., Corner 20th Street.

Another club woman, Mrs. Haule, of Edgerton, Wis., tells how she was cured of irregularities and uterine trouble, terrible pains and backache, by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM: A while ago my health began to fail because of female troubles. The doctor did not help me. I remembered that my mother had used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound on many occasions for irregularities and uterine troubles, and I felt sure that it could not harm me at any rate to give it a trial.

"I was certainly glad to find that within a week I felt much better, the terrible pains in the back and side were beginning to cease, and at the time of menstruation I did not have nearly as serious a time as heretofore, so I continued its use for two months, and at the end of that time I was like a new woman. I really have never felt better in my life, have not had a sick headache since, and weigh 20 pounds more than I ever did, so I unhesitatingly recommend your medicine."—MRS. MAY HAULE, Edgerton, Wis., Pres. Household Economics Club.

FREE MEDICAL ADVICE TO WOMEN.

Don't hesitate to write Mrs. Pinkham. She will understand your case perfectly, and will treat you with kindness. Her advice is free, and the address is Lynn, Mass. No woman ever regretted having written her, and she has helped thousands.

When women are troubled with irregularities, suppressed or painful menstruation, weakness, indigestion, leucorrhoea, displacement or ulceration of the womb, inflammation of the ovaries, general debility and nervous prostration, or are beset with such symptoms as dizziness, faintness, lassitude, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, "all-gone" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feelings, blues and hopelessness, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles. Refuse to buy any other medicine, for you need the best.

Frances Cook, Box 670, Kane, Pa., Says: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have suffered for ten years with leucorrhoea, but am glad to say that through the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and her Sanative Wash I am cured, for which I am very thankful."

FORGET IT if we cannot forthwith produce the original letters and signatures of above testimonials, which will prove their absolute genuineness. Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

ECZEMA

SETS THE SKIN ON FIRE

No disease causes so much bodily discomfort, or itches, burns and stings like Eczema. Beginning often with a slight redness of the skin it gradually spreads, followed by pustules or blisters from which a gummy, sticky fluid oozes which dries and scales off or forms bad looking sores and scabs. It appears on different parts of the body but oftentimes upon the back, arms, hands, legs and face, and is a veritable torment at times, especially at night or when overheated.

The cause of Eczema is a too acid and general unhealthy condition of the blood. The terrifying itching and burning is produced by the overflow through the glands and pores of the skin of the fiery poisons with which the blood-current is overloaded. While external applications, such as washes, soaps, salves and powders are soothing and cooling they do not enter into the blood itself or touch the real cause of the disease, but S. S. S. does, and purifies, enriches, and strengthens the thin acid blood and cleanses and builds up the general system, when the skin clears off and Eczema with all its terrifying symptoms disappears. Send for our free book on the Skin and its diseases. Medical advice or any special information wanted we give without charge.
